Dear Sirs:

Kindly execute the inclosed bids for me at your auction sale of May 3 and 4. I inclosed 50¢ for a priced catalog of sale.

If you have not already done so kindly mail catalog to Dr. W. A. Booker, Clark Bldg., City. I might say that Dr. Booker is a responsible man & good for anything he might bid off in the sale or might wish on approval. Hoping I may secure some of the wins, I remain

Very truly yours,

Mr. Walter D. Grout,
Dear Sir:

Your letter with bids received for which we thank you. The majority we fear, however, are too low and we have taken the liberty of marking opposite the numbers the prices we think they are likely to bring.

unlimited if you consider the cent worth the price

Dear Sirs:

Kindly change bids 1266, 1254 + 451 as per my notation hereon + let the others remain as given. I have no doubt the cents are worth more than I have bid, but I do not like to bid much without seeing the coins, although I am sure that I can rely upon your description.

Yours truly
